

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

5:00 P. M.

GONE

Is Guiteau, the Assassin.

At 12:40 To-Day the Drop Fell.

And the Nation's Criminal was no More.

He Broke Down Towards the Last.

And Could Not Be Calmed by Dr. Hicks.

The Remarkable Prayer Prepared by Him for the Scaffold.

His Prophetic Soul Sees the Nation go Down in Blood.

Full Report in Detail of the Execution.

Arrangements for the Autopsy and Burial in the Jail Yard.

History of the Crime, Sketch of the Assassin, and Notes of His Remarkable Trial.

GUITEAU is hanged. The majesty of the law has vindicated itself upon him who had wantonly insulted and defied it. In the face of strenuous opposition and against the force of all indignity, the law has calmly, and in due course, asserted its supremacy. It has not punished Garfield's murder; the measure of eternal justice alone does that. It has punished its own violation. It takes the lives of all men under its protection, and proclaims the forfeit of any one's life who tramples upon that protection. It has justified itself. There is an inspiration of security in this. The sense of justice is strengthened. The law is triumphant.

NEARING THE END.
Closing Up the Case—Appeals to the Supreme Court—Efforts of the Sentimentalists to Secure a Respite—Preparations for the Execution.

After the announcement of the verdict of the jury, the 23rd of January, Mr. Scoville asked permission to take such steps as were customary in criminal cases, and in the preparation of a case to be heard by the Supreme Court. He was granted this permission. On the 28th of January, Scoville filed a motion for a new trial, basing it on the alleged mistake of the jury in finding Guiteau guilty of the murder of President Garfield. This motion was denied. On the 29th of January, Scoville filed a motion for a new trial, basing it on the alleged mistake of the jury in finding Guiteau guilty of the murder of President Garfield. This motion was denied. On the 30th of January, Scoville filed a motion for a new trial, basing it on the alleged mistake of the jury in finding Guiteau guilty of the murder of President Garfield. This motion was denied.

Guiteau was again removed to jail, and his cell changed. On the 31st of January, he began his last day. He was taken to the gallows at 12:40 p.m. He was hanged by the neck. He died at 1:10 p.m. His body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

The papers were turned over to Attorney General Brewster, who on the 24th instant, announced, as the result of a cabinet council on the subject, that no interference would be made with the execution of Guiteau's sentence. This did not satisfy his brother, John W. Guiteau, and he heard the same thing from President Arthur, when the trial, at his instance, in the White house, at which he presented supporting additional evidence as to his insanity. He then tried to see the president but he declined to listen to any further appeal. He then tried to see the president but he declined to listen to any further appeal. He then tried to see the president but he declined to listen to any further appeal.

His letter to the president was addressed to the assassin to the president on the 19th inst. "Mr. Reed has just informed me that Justice Bradley has declined to give a habeas corpus. I am somewhat surprised, as it would seem to me that he would not do so. I have been in the White house since I finished a long talk with you and your very dear friend, the Rev. Dr. Hicks. I don't know how to express to you my views and feelings as to my position. I am entitled to full respect, but I am willing to wait for the public to become educated up to my views and feelings in this matter. I have been in the White house since I finished a long talk with you and your very dear friend, the Rev. Dr. Hicks. I don't know how to express to you my views and feelings as to my position. I am entitled to full respect, but I am willing to wait for the public to become educated up to my views and feelings in this matter.

The instrument of death stands now in the east end of the north wing of the building, where it was erected for the execution of Babe Bedford and Edward Quenneau, two colored men, convicted of the murder of John W. Guiteau, on November 19, 1880. The area in which it stands is reached by some dozen steps from the rotunda, in sixteen feet, nearly seventy feet. As it will be necessary to keep fully thirty feet of the length of the scaffold, besides a passageway, on the left side, the scaffold will be about 100 feet long. The scaffold will be about 100 feet long. The scaffold will be about 100 feet long.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

The Washington Star gives the following description and history of the apparatus upon which Guiteau made his final earthly appearance. The scaffold on which Guiteau will be hanged has been in use heretofore, and is the pattern in use here since 1860. One of its features is that it is made of iron. It is a platform of iron, with a cross-bar at the top. The cross-bar is made of iron. It is a platform of iron, with a cross-bar at the top. The cross-bar is made of iron.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

tean was very restless during most of the latter part of the night, not sleeping more than twenty minutes. He was taken to the prison at 6:30 a.m. He was taken to the prison at 6:30 a.m. He was taken to the prison at 6:30 a.m. He was taken to the prison at 6:30 a.m. He was taken to the prison at 6:30 a.m.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

the wretched hour of the morning. she brought with her the flowers which Guiteau had asked for, and they were taken to the prison. Mrs. Scoville also brought two handsome flower-pieces, a cross and an anchor, which she will place upon her brother's coffin with her own hands. The last meal was served at 11:30 a.m. While Dr. Hicks was in the prisoner's cell at 11 o'clock Guiteau made some requests as to the execution, and having made copies of his last prayer, poem, and other writings, tore up the originals. He then sent for the jail bookkeeper and gave him his share to be taken to the prison. He was brought to the gallows at 12:40 p.m. He was hanged by the neck. He died at 1:10 p.m. His body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

On the 31st of January, the body of Guiteau was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard. The body was taken to the morgue. It was examined by the coroner. It was found that he had died of a heart attack. His body was then buried in the jail yard.

'S PAM THEATRE.

LY EVENING, JULY 2, 1892,

Sacred Concert

BY THE MUSICAL SOCIETY,
composed Orchestra of thirty-five men,
and SOLE to all parts of the home.
secreted at Cameron's music store,
n. st., without extra charge. on t

MISERABLE BEAUFORT.

at stock. Homes for the poor, good ness for the rich. A home within every poverty by the aid of the building and don, by making monthly payments as you saw pay rent. Call on Brockton